Division
We the members of the Board of Directors at a meeting held June 1, 1990 do accept the following amendments to the Articles of incorporation of Centro San Francisco Inc.

Article Four will now read in the Introduction

FOUR

Centro San Francisco Inc. is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including for such purposes the making of distributions to organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.)

Article Five will now read

FIVE

No part of the net earnings of Centro San Francisco Inc. shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation/organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of Section 501(c)(3) purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation/organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation/organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation/organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding sections of any future Federal tax code) or (b) by a corporation/organization contributions to which are deductible
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
CENTRO SAN FRANCISCO, INC.

We, the undersigned, do hereby associate ourselves as Incorporators with the intention of forming a non-profit corporation under and by virtue of the General Corporation Law for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, under the following clauses:

TERM: The duration of the Corporation shall be perpetual.

FOURTH

OBJECT: The corporation will not be operated for profit and the purposes for which this Corporation is formed are exclusively charitable, scientific and educational and in furtherance thereof, it shall undertake:

a. To promote the interchange of ideas and cultural activities among people of different nations.

b. To foster and facilitate the development and maturing of individuals through lectures, seminars, courses, schools, student residences, scholarships, grants, endowments, gifts to educational or other establishments, the building and maintenance of apartments, residences, dormitories, schools, colleges, research centers and other types of facilities related to any of these.

c. To print, publish, distribute and disseminate books, magazines, periodicals and other publications and to sponsor, manage, produce, broadcast, and show radio and television programs, music and theatrical enterprises, information agencies, and other similar operations, especially, although not exclusively, of a cultural and educational nature.

d. To foster and promote the exchange and distribution of ideas and facts through the interchange of articles, essays, notes, news, photographs, scripts, films and other publications or materials of any nature whatsoever among peoples of different backgrounds, walks of life and nationalities, in an effort to obtain greater and better understanding among all peoples.
e. To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange or otherwise and to own, use, develop, lease, mortgage, sell or otherwise dispose of or realize upon, and generally so deal in or with, any real or personal property and rights and privileges therein, wheresoever situate, and directly or indirectly to manage, operate and control the same, for any purpose in connection with the foregoing or in any way related thereto.

f. To act as agent, broker or in any other intermediate capacity for the purpose of advertising, publicity, subscriptions, or for any other purposes in connection with the powers enumerated herein or in any way related thereto.

g.
