FIRST.--The name of this corporation is Puerto Rico Christian School, Incorporated.

SECOND.--Its principal office in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico is to be located at Paseo Amapola 2221, Levittown, Puerto Rico.

The agent in charge thereof is Karen Mutsch.

THIRD.--This is a corporation not for profit, and its purposes to be transacted, promoted or carried on are:

1. To serve as a non-profit organization seeking to advance the cause of Christ through a quality Christian education, on behalf of the Churches of Christ/Christian Churches;

2. To evangelize the people of Puerto Rico and to raise up a generation of children who may be the indigenous church of the future in Puerto Rico;

3. To serve the community by providing a quality education in English for those desiring it.

To carry out these overall purposes, Puerto Rico Christian School may:

1. Create, maintain, and operate educational facilities of kindergarten, elementary, and/or secondary levels;

2. Establish or associate with other schools under the same incorporation;

3. Sponsor special educational programs, such as English classes, religious classes, etc.;

4. Prepare, publish, and distribute educational, evangelistic, and promotional materials for use among the staff, student body, and families of students;

5. Promote individual and collective participation among staff members in classes and conventions for improvement of professional skills;

6. Offer diplomas or other forms of recognition for educational achievements.
FOURTH.--This corporation will not have authority to issue capital stock.

The conditions of membership are: (*)

1. The members of the corporation shall be the same persons as the members of the Board of Trustees.

2. Puerto Rico Christian School, Inc., shall be governed by a Board of Trustees of no fewer than five members.

3. Trustees shall be elected for terms not exceeding three years, with approximately one third of the terms ending each year, and may be re-elected to serve additional terms or parts of terms.

4. Each trustee must be an active member of a Church of Christ/Christian Church congregation. The churches of the undenominational fellowship are generally listed in the "Directory of the Ministry" presently published annually by Specialized Christian Services, Inc., at Springfield, Illinois. Each trustee must firmly believe in the deity of Jesus Christ, His virgin birth, His bodily resurrection, His second coming, and the divine inspiration of the Bible, and believe that baptism by immersion is required for salvation, and must be willing to sign a statement affirming such beliefs. He must be of good report and sound Christian character.

5. Members shall be elected to the Board of Trustees by a majority vote of the Board, and may be removed by a majority vote.

6. The Board of Trustees shall elect its own officers at each Annual Business Meeting. These officers shall include a Chairman of the Board, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and any other officers the Board shall choose.

7. The members of the first Board of Trustees and those serving as officers until the first Annual Business Meeting are:

SIXTH.—The existence of the corporation is to be perpetual.

SEVENTH.—POWERS.

In addition to any other powers the corporation may have by virtue of any general or special law of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico applicable thereto, the corporation is specifically empowered:

1. To buy, own, rent, sell, convey, assign, pledge, mortgage, or lease any interest in real estate and personal property and to construct, maintain, and operate improvements thereon;

2. To borrow money and issue evidence of indebtedness in furtherance of any or all the objects of its business, and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, or other lien on the corporation's property;

3. To enter into contracts, agreements, and relationships and to serve as agents or correspondents with third parties in Puerto Rico, continental United States, or abroad for carrying out the purposes of the corporation;

4. To exercise all other powers presently or hereafter conferred by law upon non-profit corporations with no other limitations than those imposed by law and to enjoy all other powers necessary, proper, and convenient to effectuate the purposes of this corporation;

5. To accept contributions to assist the corporation in accomplishing its purposes, and to establish a fund, foundation, or endowment to be used exclusively for constructing, owning, maintaining, and operating educational or religious institutions, no part of the net earnings of which shall accrue to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

6. No person shall receive any profits from the operation of the corporation, but the officers and staff members may receive salaries commensurate with their duties and services rendered to and on behalf of the corporation.

7. The officers, directors, and members shall not be personally liable for any of the corporation's debts.

8. The corporation shall not directly or indirectly attempt to influence legislation by any illegal or improper means and shall not directly or indirectly participate in, or intervene in, any political campaign and shall not directly or indirectly be operated for the benefit of any private interest.

9. This corporation is not empowered to engage, otherwise than in an insubstantial part, in activities which in themselves are not in furtherance of one or more exemplary purposes set forth in Section 501(c) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954.
10. Upon dissolution of the corporation, all of its remaining net assets and property of every nature and character shall be paid over and transferred to one or more corporations or associations organized and operated exclusively for charitable and religious purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as may be selected by the trustees of the corporation, but only from among those corporations and associations within the fellowship of the aforementioned Churches of Christ/Christian Churches (which does not include "non-instrumental" Churches of Christ or the Disciples of Christ/Christian Church.)

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, for the purpose of forming a corporation not for profit under the provisions of the General Corporation Law for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, approved January 9, 1956, as subsequently amended, do make and file this Certificate, and do swear that the facts herein stated are true.

Dated at Toa Baja, Puerto Rico, this 5th day of May, AD, 1980.
